MES AND MILL TO STOP

Montgomery Shoshone Directors to Wind Up the Business.

The directors of the Montgomery Sho-Consolidated Mining Company have shore colose down the mines and mill declare de company, and have so informed the ockholders. This action is in accordance sith a resolution adopted by the stockholdat a special meeting on October 6, 1910, the mines, upon the lines suggested by the management, up to the limit of their workns capacity, and authorized the directors o close down the mines when, in their judgment, it seemed best to do so. It is said that no further monthly reports will sent to the stockholders, but that when the final figures are obtained a report will M made covering the period subsequent to December 31, 1910. charles M. Schwab, president of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, is a director ery Sheshone Consolidated Mining Compary, the stock of which once sold as high is $14 a share. Three years ago it was selling at & a share on the curb, and dropped from that figure to $1.63 in one day on the announcement that a mining expert, who had made an investigation of the property, had reported that there was only enough ore left in the mine to yield an operating profit of about $400,000. The stock has not been traded in on the curb

The Montgomery Shoshone Consolidated Mining Company was incorporated in Pebruary, 1966, with an authorized capital stock of $2,500,000, to acquire control of the Montgomery Shoshone Mining Company the Sheshone Polaris Mining Company and the Crystal Bullfrog Mining Company, all at The combined preperties comprise about 178 acres, not including ten eres of mill site. The company also owns all the capital stock of the Bullfrog Reduction and Water Company, which was erganized to treat the subsidiary companies' ore, and owns the mill, pipe line
